

Art Activity Easy to Intermediate

Easy as A B C

Fun things to make and do with the alphabet. (Playing with shapes and naming the letters they look like (easy). Making a picture using everyday objects using a few letters of the alphabet (Intermediate).

“What letter could this be? It is round and has a hole in the middle”.

“It is a party ring biscuit and it looks like the letter ‘O’.”

“That was tasty, now it looks like the letter ‘C’”

Materials needed:

Objects from around your house.

A camera if you want to take a photo of your creation. Card, if you want to print your creation and make it into a card to post to someone. PC if you want to make an ecard.

Can you find objects around your house that look a bit like letters of the alphabet?

This is an allen key, it looks like the letter S

This is a tape measure, it looks like the letter P

This is pliers, it looks like the letter Y

Art Activity Intermediate to Challenging

Easy as A B C

Fun things to make and do with the alphabet. Finding everyday objects from around your house and using your imagination to transform them into words.

S A D I e

This is my cat Sadie, I used an allen key (S), an ornament of the Eifel tower (A), a paper punch (D), a fancy spoon (I) and sellotape (e) to make her name. Can you make your name or a pet's name?

It would be great if you could take a photo of your creation and turn it into a card or an ecard and send it to someone you love.

Can you make the whole alphabet out of things you can find around the house? (Challenging)

Which letters were easy to spot, and which were the hardest?

I could not find the letter 'K', so I collected sticks from my garden and made the letter K from those.

Happy searching!

Materials needed:

Objects from around your house.

A camera if you want to take a photo of your creation. Card, if you want to print your creation and make it into a card to post to someone.

Can you think of a silly word that might make someone laugh? I made this silly word into a card for my mum's birthday because she loves to make things.

