

Don Class Activity Grid w/c 18.01

Hello Don class! Below are some activities for you to complete this week. We are going to be looking at Scots this term in the run up to Burns night with some scots poetry and a look at some famous Scots. It would be great to see some of your efforts which can be emailed to me – daniel.reid@braidburn.edin.sch.uk

It was good to hear that you are all doing well and I look forward to seeing you all soon!

Continue Circle Time Activities:

1) Date – What is today's date? Can you sign it? Can you write it? What day was it yesterday? What day is it tomorrow?

2) Timetable – What are we doing today? What activities are we planning? Where do they fit in across the day? How do they fit in with snacks/lunch?

3) Newsround –

https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround

Continue watch Newsround to keep in touch with what is happening – can you remember what happened in the news stories? Do you have any thoughts or opinions about what you saw? Do you want to find out more? Perhaps you can create an information sheet for somebody else?

4) Hi5 -

We do a daily 5 minute exercise activity and these are some of our favourites!

Routines Continue to create a visual timetable to help plan the day - I would recommend following our circle time activities set out as a daily start. Have you set some time for exercise?	Scots Poetry Read or listen to Crocodile by J K Annand https://www.scotslanguage.com/articles/node/id/11 Can you find out what the scots words mean? Can you make or draw your own crocodile?	Collections Can you sort items that are the same from a group of objects? Can you sort them by size, shape or colour? How many of each item are there? How many in total?	Famous Scots John Logie Baird was a very famous Scottish inventor. Can you find out some information about his life and what he is most famous for? Can you make a fact sheet for someone else to read about this famous Scot?
Maths Games Can you do some number games on Sumdog or Topmarks? Focus on ordering, addition/subtraction or times tables games	Literacy Continue to practice writing or spelling your name. Can you also write, spell or order the days of the week?	Lifeskills Can you help organise the clothes washing at home? Can you sort different colours out? Fill and empty the washing machine? Hang up the wet clothes?	Memory Collect some objects and lay them all out. Cover them up and remove one item. Can you work out what is missing?
Questioning Can you and a partner come up with some questions for each other? You could ask about objects in a room or ask about things that you might see outside.	Scots Food Below is a link to a recipe for shortbread – a very famous Scottish biscuit! Why not try making these this week? https://www.bbc.co.uk/food/recipes/shortbread_1290	Signalong Continue to practice your signalong skills. Can you sign all the days of the week? Do you know how to sign the 1st 20 core words? https://braidburnedinburgh.com/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/20-core-words-pdf.pdf	Letter/Picture Can you write a letter or draw a picture for someone you haven't seen in a long time? What things would they like to know? What do you miss about not seeing them? Perhaps you could post it to brighten up their day?
